

JEFF OSTER & KAREN BENTLEY POLLICK

LIVE at El Gallo

Sunday January 14th
7:30pm - 10:30pm

"An evening of brass and strings"

Join us for an adventurous evening featuring the chill brass moods of flugelhorn/trumpet artist JEFF OSTER, and the creative and skillful musical expressions of violinist KAREN BENTLEY POLLICK.

Each of them will perform a solo set, and then join together for a set of exploratory improvisation.

This will be a unique and unforgettable night of beauty and creativity by two of San Francisco's most celebrated musicians. We hope to see you there!

JEFF OSTER

Jeff Oster is a GRAMMY®-nominated American jazz flugelhorn player and recording artist.

His music is characterized by its atmospheric soundscapes, intricate arrangements, and rich, soulful colors. He has been performing in San Francisco since 2007, and his horn can be heard echoing throughout the profile.

KAREN BENTLEY POLLICK

Karen Bentley Pollick is one of America's leading contemporary violinists and violas. She extends the boundaries of the concert experience, adding multi-media collaborations and live improvisation. A long-time San Francisco resident, Karen brings a unique joy and spirit to every performance.
